

I am very disappointed to hear of pressure and whining that NAB is doing about satellite radio offering Traffic and Weather content. I hope you will not be pressured or purchased into stopping any content offering by the satellite radio providers. Let the American free market decide what it will pay for and support.